2. The Collection, Use & Disclosure of Personal Information

For the purposes of this Policy:

"Client" means an individual who may or has purchased or sold real estate or services to buy or purchase real estate;

"Personal Information" means any information, recorded in any form, about an identified individual, or an individual whose identity may be inferred or determined from such information.

Your provision of Personal Information to Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty means that you agree and consent that we may collect, use and disclose your Personal Information in accordance with this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree with these terms, you are requested not to provide any Personal Information to Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty or a Broker or Sales Representative working with Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty. Unfortunately, certain services can only be offered if you provide Personal Information and consequently, if you choose not to provide us with any required Personal Information, Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty may not be able to offer you those services.

This office only collects personal information necessary to effectively market and sell the property of sellers; to locate, assess and qualify properties for buyers and to otherwise provide professional and competent real estate services to clients and may use this information to market its services to other clients (ie: just sold notices).

Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty's Brokers or sales representatives may use personal information for commission management purposes (e.g. commission financing, commission dispute resolution).

Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty's use of Personal Information is limited to these purposes. Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty does not sell, trade, barter or exchange for consideration any Personal Information it has obtained. Unless permitted by law, no personal information is collected about an individual without first obtaining the consent of the individual to the collection, use and dissemination of that information.

Personal information will be collected, to the extent possible, directly from the individual concerned.

Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty does not knowingly collect Personal Information from anyone under the age of 18, especially children under 13, and does not use such information if Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty discovers that it has been provided by a minor.

Personal Information may also be transferred to another company in the event of a change of ownership of all or part of Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty.

Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty may disclose Personal Information of Clients to organizations that perform services on its behalf. This will only be done if such organizations agree to use such information solely for the purposes of providing services to Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty and, with respect to that information, to act in a manner consistent with this Policy.

Please note that there are circumstances where the use and/or disclosure of Personal Information may be justified or permitted or where Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty is obliged to disclose information without consent. Such circumstances may include:

- Where required by law or by order or requirement of a court, administrative agency or other governmental tribunal; Where Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty believes, upon reasonable grounds, that it is necessary to protect the rights, privacy, safety or property of an identifiable person or group;
- Where it is necessary to establish or collect monies owing to Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty
- Where it is necessary to permit Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty to pursue available remedies or limit any damages that Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty may sustain; or
- Where the information is public.

Where obliged or permitted to disclose information without consent, Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty will not disclose more information than required.

3. Accuracy

Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty endeavours to ensure that any Personal Information provided by Clients and in its possession is as accurate, current and complete as necessary for the purposes for which Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty uses that data. Information contained in files that have been closed is not actively updated or maintained.

4. Retention

Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty retains Personal Information as long as Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty believes it is necessary to fulfil the purpose for which it was collected and Firm legal or business requirements.

5. Security

Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty endeavours to maintain adequate physical, procedural and technical security with respect to its offices and information storage facilities so as to prevent any loss, misuse, unauthorized access, disclosure, or modification of Personal Information.

6. Protecting Information

Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty further protects Personal Information by restricting access to it to those Employees and Contractors that the management of Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty has determined need to know that information in order that Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty may provide services to Clients.

7. Access to Personal information

Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty permits access to and review of Personal Information held by Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty about an individual by the individual concerned.

If an individual believes any Personal Information concerning that individual is not correct, that person may request an amendment of that information by sending a request to the person indicated in Section 1 of this Policy. Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty reserves the right not to change any Personal Information but will append any alternative text the individual concerned believes appropriate. Where not required to be retained by the Firm, an individual may also request that Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty delete an individual's Personal Information from Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty system and records. However, due to constraints of computer technology and the fact that Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty backs up its systems, Personal Information may continue to reside in Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty's systems after deletion. Individuals, therefore, should not expect that their Personal Information would be completely removed from Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty systems in response to an accepted request for deletion.

Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty reserves the right to decline access to Personal Information where the information requested:

- a) Would disclose the Personal Information of another individual or of a deceased individual;
- b) Would disclose business confidential information that may harm Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty or the competitive position of a third party;
- c) Is subject to solicitor-client or litigation privilege;
- d) Could reasonably result in: (i) serious harm to the treatment or recovery of the individual concerned; (ii) serious emotional harm to the individual or another individual; or (iii) serious bodily harm to another individual;
- e) May harm, or interfere with, law enforcement activities and other investigative or regulatory functions of a body authorized by statute to perform such functions;
- f) Is not readily retrievable and the burden or cost of providing would be disproportionate to the nature or value of the information; or
- g) Does not exist, is not held, or cannot be found by Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty.

Where information will not or cannot be disclosed, the individual making the request will be provided with the reasons for non-disclosure.

Where information will be disclosed, Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty will endeavor to provide the information in question within a reasonable time and no later than 30 days following the request.

Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty will not respond to repetitious or vexatious requests for access. In determining whether a request is repetitious or vexatious, it will consider such factors as the frequency with which information is amended, the purpose for which the information is used, and the nature of the information.

To guard against fraudulent requests for access, Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty will require sufficient information to allow it to confirm the identity of the person making the request before granting access or making corrections.

8. Amendment of Practices and This Policy

This statement is in effect as of JANUARY 1, 2004. Royal LePage ProAlliance Realty will from time to time review and revise its privacy practices and this Policy. In the event of any amendment, an appropriate notice will be communicated to Clients and others in an appropriate manner.
